On Z Road Again

By Linda Williams

November 2024

Did you recover from Halloween? Hope it was fun for all!

Fall is here!! Be sure to turn your clocks BACK at 2AM Sunday Nov. 3rd..... You actually will get an extra hour of sleep! Sweet dreams... :)

We had our Annual ZONC Picnic on Oct. 13th at the Coyote Recreation Area with a couple of dozen members and family attending. We were graced with terrific weather at such a great location. It was a little overcast but still warm at the beginning of the event, but soon enough, the sun came out and there was a beautiful blue sky. Planes were landing at SFO as well as a couple of the planes performing during Fleet Week in SF flying by over the bay. There was way too much food (no surprise)!! Thank you to everyone that came and for bringing all the wonderful, tasty food and goodies. Also, thank you Ken, Oscar and Gus for keeping the grill busy with all the burgers, hot dogs and sausages.

Things are quieting down and we don't have much scheduled for the remainder of the year. We had an unofficial meeting after the picnic and discussed what we/you'd like to do for our December meeting in which we usually have our installation of officers. We are tentatively chatting about meeting in Livermore at DeBoccery, with a second pickup in the Lathrop/Manteca area, and then proceeding up to 24Brix Winery in Plymouth. We'll find a lunch spot before our return trip. The date (tentatively) is Saturday, Dec. 14th. Of course, the weather could be sunny, rainy, snowy..... you never know till about a week before.

We are still open to suggestions for additional fun runs if you would like to put one together. Suggestions were discussed for a coastal fun run (Bodega Bay, Russian River area), a Hwy 35/Big Basin/Santa Cruz fun run, a Monterey 17th mile Drive run, Cobra Experience, and Canapa in Scott's Valley. "If you plan it, they will come!" Let me know your thoughts!

Thanks to everyone that voted for our 2025 Board of Directors. We will be announcing the final results at our November meeting on 10th via ZOOM.

Hope you have a wonderful Thanksgiving and enjoy time with family and friends if you can.

Safe travels,
Linda
